

Job Development Authority

Mission Statement and Performance Measures

Mission Statement

The New York Job Development Authority spurs job growth and capital investment in New York State by using the authority granted to it and by leveraging State-guaranteed bonds to support low-interest loans to manufacturers and other targeted industries throughout New York State.

Performance Measures

- Annual Number of transactions closed
- Aggregate value of bonds issued
- Number of jobs retained and created with each investment transaction
- Amount of private capital investment leveraged
- Number of transactions delinquent
- Number of transactions in default
- Number of transactions approved by the Authority during the reporting period
