Hispanic Federation – Emergency Assistance

(Last updated: April 20, 2021)

Hispanic Federation, in partnership with the Miranda Family, launched a Covid-19 Emergency Assistance Fund in March 2020 to support local Latino communities throughout the nation, and the institutions that serve them locally. With a focus on helping the most vulnerable and impacted segments of our community – seniors, children and families living in poverty, undocumented immigrants, farmworkers, day laborers, poultry and meatpacking plant workers, people without health insurance, and migrant families and refugees – the Hispanic Federation’s Fund has grown to become the most far-reaching Latino Covid-19 emergency relief effort in the country. The fund actively supporting over 250 community-based organizations in 26 states and Puerto Rico to provide food, cash, testing, housing, education, health care, workforce development and other vital assistance to hundreds of thousands of people impacted by the virus. Through the end of November 2020, more than $14 million had been committed by the Federation’s Fund to make these efforts possible.

The fund is offering grants of $10,000-25,000 to member agencies and select Latino nonprofit partner organizations serving primarily Black, Brown and Immigrant communities. Grants will only be considered for eligible member and partner organizations in the United States and Puerto Rico.

For more information about the fund, please visit

Lake Champlain – Lake George Regional Planning Board – Small Business Recovery Loan Program

(Last updated: April 20, 2021)

In August 2020, the Lake Champlain – Lake George Regional Planning Board was awarded a $2,940,000 Revolving Loan Fund CARES Act grant from the Economic Development Administration to assist small businesses within Clinton, Essex, Hamilton, Warren, Washington, Jefferson, Lewis and St. Lawrence Counties that have been impacted by the Covid-19 pandemic. The fund was capitalized to alleviate the sudden and severe economic dislocation caused by the coronavirus pandemic, to provide permanent resources to support economic resiliency, and to further the long-term economic adjustment objectives of the region.

The objective of the Covid-19 Small Business Recovery Program is to assist small businesses by providing loans in two categories:

1. Economic Injury: The region's small businesses in many sectors have been negatively affected by Covid-19 pandemic. Working capital loans will be made available to businesses that can show they have endured economic injury as a result of Covid-19.
2. Future Resiliency: The Covid-19 outbreak has changed people's expectations in the workplace and public. A loan from this program would give a business the ability to purchase equipment and/ or supplies, including Personal Protection Equipment (PPE), related to prolonged heightened safety protocols. Funding will also be available for physical infrastructure upgrades related to Covid-19 needs. Borrowers must relate all purchases to the Covid-19 pandemic, demonstrate what will be purchased with the loan funding and determine its useful life.

Program details:

- $25,000-$150,000 loans
- 1.9% fixed interest rate
- First 12-months interest-only payments
- Up to 84-month term available
- No application fee or closing costs
- Must show job retention
- Sufficient collateral and personal guarantee required

For more information, please visit esd.ny.gov

Program loan funds may not be used to pay off existing debt, refinance other loans, acquire a position in a business, investments, expansion of a business, or personal expenses. No start-ups. Other program restrictions apply.

Applications are only available after eligibility requirements are met. If you are interested in obtaining one of these loans, please contact Jamie White, Small Business Support Specialist at Jamie.white@lclgrpb.org or (518) 307-8674. For more information regarding the program, please visit <https://lclgrpb.org/revolving-loan-fund/>.

The NYC Small Business Resource Network

(Last updated: April 20, 2021)

The NYC Small Business Resource Network is a comprehensive approach to strengthen New York City's economy and accelerating the recovery of small businesses – starting with personalized guidance and recovery resources.

Launched in response to the crisis facing many of the city's 230,000+ small businesses in the wake of Covid-19, we've assembled an extraordinary collaboration of New Yorkers who are committed to small business recovery in our communities.

We are leveraging our relationships with the city's corporate, financial and professional service sectors, as well as universities, philanthropies and expert volunteers to help small business owners gain access to a range of programs and services. Our public-private partnership is funded by a $2.8 million grant from the New York City-based Peter G. Peterson Foundation and supported by in-kind contributions from other partners.

The NYC Small Business Resource Network can assist in technology, real estate, legal and accounting services, procurement opportunities, marketing, sources of loans and grants, and more. Our on-the-ground Small Business Support Specialists will help guide you to the resources you need.
