To review a determination denying an application for certification as a Woman-owned Business Enterprise pursuant to Executive Law Article 15-A.

APPEARANCES

David A. Murad, Administrative Law Judge, New York State Department of Economic Development, and Dennie Byam, Esq., for Respondent.

WHEREAS:

1. The above proceeding was commenced by the filing of an appeal, pursuant to New York Executive Law Article 15-A and Title 5 of the Official Compilation of Codes, Rules and Regulations of the State of New York Parts 140-144, by Firestop Technologies, Inc., to challenge the determination of the Division of Minority and Women’s Business Development (“Division”) that the applicant does not meet the eligibility requirements for certification as a Woman-owned Business Enterprise; and
2. The application for certification was received on July 18, 2018. The application was denied by the Division by a letter dated July 27, 2020. The Appellant thereafter appealed the denial by a letter dated August 26, 2020; and
3. Upon notice to the parties sent via electronic mail and regular mail, dated June 7, 2023, a pre-hearing conference was scheduled for June 27, 2023. The notice advised the Appellant that they would be considered in default if they did not appear for the pre-hearing conference and failed to request a new date on or before the date of the pre-hearing conference; and

4. The video conference invitation was sent via electronic mail on June 7, 2023 and was not accepted by the Appellant; and
5. Appellant failed to appear at the pre-hearing conference, and did not contact either counsel for the Division or the Administrative Hearings Unit; and
6. On administrative appeal, the Appellant bears the burden of proving that the Division's denial of Appellant's Women's Business Enterprise certification is not supported by substantial evidence (5 NYCRR §145.2(b)); and
7. At the June 27, 2023 pre-hearing conference, the Division made a motion to dismiss the review of the application, based on the Appellant's failure to appear.

RECOMMENDATION

Based upon the Appellant's failure to appear at the pre-hearing conference, the Appellant should be deemed in default, the motion of the Division to dismiss the review of the application be granted and the application for review dismissed in accordance with State Administrative Procedure Act §301.5.
