III. Report of Purpose, Operations and Mission and Projects, Statement of Justification

A. Purpose and Mission:

Statewide Local Development Corporation ("SLDC") spurs growth and capital investment in New York State, primarily by working with the New York Job Development Authority to support low-interest loans to manufacturers and other targeted industries throughout New York State. SLDC also founded and maintains the New York State Office of Trade and Tourism ("NYSOTT"). Located in San Juan, NYSOTT seeks to strengthen economic development ties and promote tourism opportunities between New York State and Puerto Rico.

B. Projects:

The subsidiary has approved the following loan projects in 2017. All projects are to be funded with JDA funds:

Sullivan County Fabrication - $1,800,000

Bread Alone, Inc. - $310,977

The Development Corporation - $1,200,000

With respect to its economic development activities in Puerto Rico, SLDC's NYSOTT operates the New York State Discovery Center, which sells Taste NY products and I LOVE NY merchandise and provides New York State tourism assistance. Since its launch in late 2015, more than 5,000 Puerto Rican residents and international tourists have visited the Center. NYSOTT has also placed a wide-range of New York State made products, from Saratoga Spring Water to North Fork Chips, in a variety of restaurants and retail stores throughout Puerto Rico. In addition, NYSOTT organized the Agriculture Trade Forum in September 2016, in an effort to connect producers, buyers, distributors, and educational institutions from New York and Puerto Rico and promote joint agritourism and agribusiness ventures.

C. Statement of Justification:

SLDC continues its efforts in furtherance of New York Job Development Authority projects to support low-interest loans to manufacturers and other targeted industries throughout New York State. Specifically, the New York Job Development Authority Act (Public Authorities Law, Article 8, Title 8) authorizes the New York Job Development Authority to make mortgage loans and machinery and equipment loans to local development corporations for the benefit of project occupants. Statewide Local Development Corporation's continuing existence is necessary to effectuate loans where other local development corporations are not present. In addition, through its NYSOTT, SLDC continues to cultivate a variety of business development projects, including the distribution of New York State agricultural products to big-box stores and retailers in Puerto Rico, and the distribution of New York State craft beverages to high-end restaurants, hotels, and retail stores throughout Puerto Rico. NYSOTT also assists companies who intend to move their manufacturing and distribution to New York State and those that are interested in purchasing New York State made products, as part of their supply chain. Finally, NYSOTT played a critical role in the Empire State Relief and Recovery Effort following the devastation of Hurricane Maria earlier this fall.
