III. Report of Purpose, Operations and Mission and Projects, Statement of Justification

A. Purpose and Mission:

Statewide Local Development Corporation (“SLDC”) spurs growth and capital investment in New York State, primarily by working with the New York Job Development Authority to support low-interest loans to manufacturers and other targeted industries throughout New York State. SLDC also founded and maintains the New York State Office of Trade and Tourism (“NYSOTT”). Located in San Juan, NYSOTT seeks to strengthen economic development ties and promote tourism opportunities between New York State and Puerto Rico.

The New York Job Development Authority spurs job growth and capital investment in New York State by using the authority granted to it and by leveraging State-guaranteed bonds to support low-interest loans to manufacturers and other targeted industries throughout New York State.

B. Projects:

Since last year's report, the subsidiary has not approved any further projects.

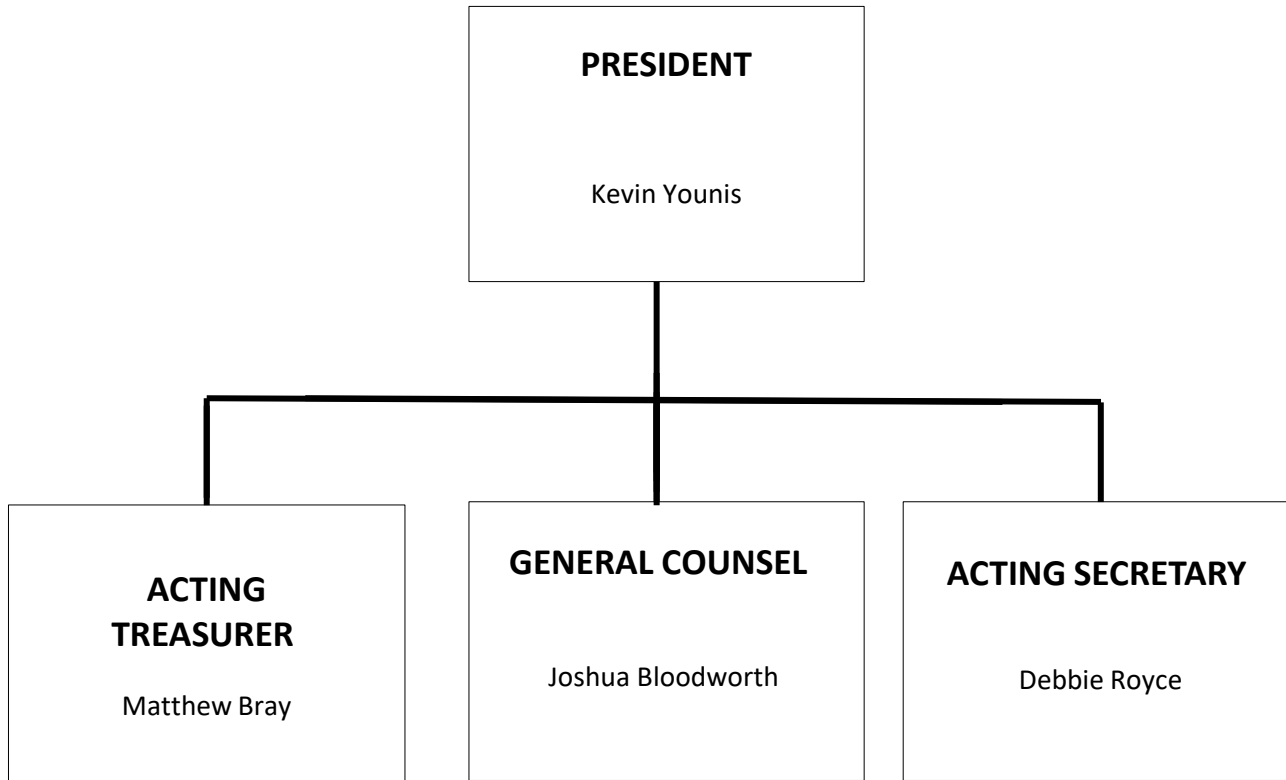

C. Statement of Justification:

SLDC continues its efforts in furtherance of New York Job Development Authority projects to support low-interest loans to manufacturers and other targeted industries throughout New York State. Specifically, the New York Job Development Authority Act (Public Authorities Law, Article 8, Title 8) authorizes the New York Job Development Authority to make mortgage loans and machinery and equipment loans to local development corporations for the benefit of project occupants. Statewide Local Development Corporation's continuing existence is necessary to effectuate loans where other local development corporations are not present. In addition, through its NYSOTT, SLDC continues to cultivate a variety of business development projects, including the distribution of New York State agricultural products to big-box stores and retailers in Puerto Rico, and the distribution of New York State craft beverages to high-end restaurants, hotels, and retail stores throughout Puerto Rico. NYSOTT also assists companies who intend to move their manufacturing and distribution to New York State and those that are interested in purchasing New York State made products, as part of their supply chain. Finally, NYSOTT played a critical role in the Empire State Relief and Recovery Effort following the devastation of Hurricane Maria earlier this fall.

INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

Section 29. a. General Scope of Indemnification. The provisions of this Article for indemnification shall be in addition to and shall not supplant any indemnification by the State of New York heretofore or hereafter conferred upon any director, officer or employee by a statute, by Sections 17, 18 and 19 of the Public Officers law, or otherwise. This Article is to be construed liberally in favor of each Director, officer and employee of the Corporation to the fullest extent permitted by law; and any ambiguity, uncertainty or reasonable doubt as to facts, interpretation or legal conclusions shall be resolved in favor of such director, officer or employee. The provisions of this Article shall inure only to the directors, officers or employees of the Corporation and to their estates, shall not enlarge or diminish the rights of any other party, and shall not impair, limit or modify the rights and obligations of any insurer under any policy of insurance.

b. Directors, Officers and Employees. Other than as provided in Section 30 of these Bylaws, the Corporation shall to the fullest extent permitted by law save harmless and indemnify any person (or his or her estate) who shall have served as a director, officer or employee of the Corporation against financial loss or reasonable litigation expense incurred in connection with any claim, demand, suit, action or proceedings, whether civil or criminal, or the defense thereof, and arising out of (a) any transaction of the Corporation or (b) any act or failure to act by any such director, officer or employee while engaged in the discharge of his or her duties on behalf of the Corporation.

Section 30. Conditions Precedent and Representation of Persons Indemnified.

Except in a criminal proceeding, the right to indemnification shall be conditioned on (v) the prompt delivery to the Corporation of a copy of the summons, complaint, process, notice, demand or pleading commencing any such claim, demand, suit, action or proceeding, (w) a contemporaneous offer to name counsel to the Corporation as counsel to the director, officer or employee in the defense of such claim, demand, suit, action or proceeding, and (x) the full cooperation of the director, officer or employee, in the event the offer is accepted, in the making of such defense. The Corporation may, either by its own staff counsel or by outside counsel of its choice, accept the offer and assume the representation of any person who becomes a party to the claim, demand, suit, action or proceeding, except in situations in which (y) choice of counsel is governed by statute, or (z) the Corporation's counsel determines that it is inappropriate or inadvisable for such person to be represented by counsel chosen by the Corporation. In the event the Corporation does not assume such representation, such person shall have the right to engage private counsel of his or her choice and the Corporation shall have the obligation of indemnification for the reasonable fees and expenses of such private counsel as provided in this Article; provided, however, that the Corporation as a condition to such indemnification shall, require appropriate groups of person to be represented by the same counsel.

a. Advances of Expenses.

i. Directors and Officers. A Director or officer who becomes a party to an action or proceeding may request that the Corporation advance expenses pending the final disposition of such action or proceeding.

ii. Employees. Reasonable litigation expenses incurred by an employee who becomes a party to an action or proceeding may be paid by the Corporation from time to time pending the final disposition of such action or proceeding without necessity for any authorization, findings, or other action by the directors prior to the making of such advances; provided, however, that the directors (i) may make a preliminary finding at any time prior to the final disposition of such action or proceeding that it then appears that an employee has clearly not acted, in good faith, for a purpose reasonably believed to be in the best interests of the Corporation and, in criminal actions or proceedings, in addition, that the employee clearly had not had reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was lawful, or may seek an opinion in writing of outside legal counsel with respect to that issue, and if such a preliminary finding shall be made or a negative opinion on the issue shall be given, no further advances under this paragraph shall be made with respect to expenses of such employee, and (ii) may determine, or provide for the determination of, the reasonableness of expenses sought to be advanced.

b. Directors' Liability. No director of the Corporation shall be personally liable to the Corporation or its shareholders for damages for any breach of duty as a director, unless a judgment or other final adjudication adverse to the director establishes that, in connection with any such breach of duty (i) the acts or omissions of the director were in bad faith or involved intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (ii) the director personally gained in fact a financial profit or other advantage to which the director was not legally entitled, or (iii) the acts of the director violated Section 719 of the Business Corporation Law.

Re: Downhill Local Development Corporation

Dear Ms Ryan:

I am writing in response to your letter of January 8, 1990, to Kenneth Lowenstein, General Counsel of the New York City Department of Housing Preservation and Development ("HPD"). In that letter you seek HPD's approval to file a Certificate Of Amendment to the Certificate of Incorporation for the above-identified local development corporation.

Please be advised that HPD has no statutory role with respect to this type of entity. If this corporation was formed pursuant to both the Not-For-Profit Law and Article XI of the Private Housing Finance Law, HPD's consent or that the New York State Division of Housing and Community Renewal would be required.

I understand this letter will be presented to the Clerk of the Supreme Court, First Judicial Department. If you need any further assistance, please do not hesitate to contact me directly.

Sincerely,

Clifford Forman
