The following is a response to a question submitted by a prospective respondent to the Request for Proposals - NY Television Writers and Directors Disparity Study

Addendum # 1 - Response to Question

No.	Question	Answer
1	Can you indicate what steps were taken to inform the community and possible vendors about the RFP? Though the RFP was posted online, were there additional communications with relevant individuals and organizations to make sure potential vendors were aware of the RFP?	In addition to advertising on the New York Contract Reporter (NYSCR) and posting the solicitation to our website, our outreach entailed sharing both the RFP link and solicitation email address to potentially interested respondents, stakeholders and industry personnel, who were then instructed to share the solicitation with potential parties that may be qualified and interested in responding to this opportunity.
